

I am extremely
worried about
Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election.
Broadcasting
extremely partisan
material under the guise of nonpartisan
reportage violates
the trust that much
of America places in
it's news media.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to serve the public interest. If they go ahead with their plan to air this program, it would be
in direct violation
federal election
law, and action to
revoke their licence
must be begun. Thank you.
